

The Daily Gazetteer.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30 1736.

919 420.

To his MAJESTY.

ATHER*and King, your Presence glads the Sate, Th' expecting Nations your Arrival wait; Eternal Guardian of the British Isle;
You make our Summers fade or Winers smile; Then quick revisit Albion's happy Shore,
We'll fill the Glass, and bid the Cannons roar.

Cæsar and Pompey so renew'd of old,
The valiant Deeds by Roman Authors told,
And Macedonian Philip's greater Son, Who drove Darius from the Persian Throne, Were only Instruments of heav'nly Ire,
And born to set the Universe on Fire.
The Triumphs of your Reign are doing Good,
And sparing human Race, not shedding Blood;
In this alone can make a Monarch Great, Whose Goodness only Greatness can create;
This shall to future Times transmit your Name Direct Characters of honest Fame.
Great Arbiters of Europe's Peace return,
And let your People for your Absence mourn, While Half the World rejoice you've made them Friends,
And other Half on your Resolves attends.
The Turk distrust and vanquish'd Tartar crave,
Your interposing Arm their Realms to save,
While the great Empress of the North agrees,
And the War upon what Terms you please.

So when the Guardian Gods of Rome or Greece, Complain'd to Jove, he bade their Murmurs cease;
Thus return'd to bless the Earth,
When War and bloodshed ceas'd at Pollio's Birth.

BRITAIN secure beneath thy gentle Reign, Nor dreads the Gaul, nor fears the Pow'r of Spain;
Your Master's Greatness, where'er they go,
Your Fleets proclaim, nor meet a single Foe; Whence your Empire o'er the Main,
You but appear, and Europe's Foes refrain:
Ganza safe receives his Golden Mines,
And Bourbon sends the Succours he designs.

So when Æneas and the Trojan Band,
The last remains escap'd Achilles' Hand, Were doom'd to perish in the stormy Waves;
And by Æ unkenell'd Winds from hollow Caves.
Whence the Tridented God arose,
To calm the Wind, and smooth the Water flows;
The virtuous Trojan, all his Dangers o'er, Sets a fresh Sail, and makes the Punick Shore.

THINE is the Land, where perfect Freedom reigns,
And yellow Harvests rise for jovial Swains;
Each British Subject safe enjoys his own,
And Law and Justice guard thy sacred Throne.
Under thy Reign shall civil Discord cease,
And Party Rage subside in lasting Peace;
Thou shalt abolish all remaining Crimes,
And form the State, and purify the Times.

Dixi orte bonis, optime Romula Cassus Gentis, abes jam nimium diu, Scurum reditum pollicetur Patrum Sancto Concilio redi.

tem redde tue, dux bone, Patrie, Fustar veris enim, cultus ubi tuus Sulst populo, gratior it dies, Et sales melius nitent.

Quis paritum pœceat, quis Gelidum Scythien.
Reliquias Danaum atque immitis Achillei.
Cavum convessa cuspide montem Sulst in latis, & venti venti velut agmine facti data porta ruunt.

Non illi imperium pelagi, secumque tridentem, Mili sorte datum.

Et ditto citius tumida aquora placat, Sic mare, siqua manent sceleris vestigia nostri,
In perpetua solent formidine terras.

From thee a Race of future Kings shall rise,
And claim Alliance with th' immortal Skies;
When late recall'd from Earth to blest Abodes, You walk among the Stars, and Reign with Gods.

GREAT Prince return, e'er yet the Northern Gale Infests the Skies, and hurries on the Sail.
Then shall your Country's Joys be unallay'd;
When you are here, no honest Heart's afraid.

Lincoln's Inn.

Edinburgh, Oct. 21. Last Week the Magistrates and Town Council came to a Resolution, to make the most exact Scrutiny into the late Riot, and for that End, have obtained all the Burgesses, Traders, &c. of the City, to appear before the Dean of Guild betwixt and the 15th Day of November next, and give in an exact List of the respective Servants and Apprentices that were with them the 7th of September last, and also appointed the Deacons of the respective Incorporations, and the Baron Baillies of Leith, West Port, Potter-row, &c. to do the like with respect to those under their Charge, in order to make a Discovery of the Persons guilty of the Murder of Captain Porteous.

The two Regiments of Foot quartered in the Suburbs, excepting those quartered in the Castle, are all marched out of the Town as far as Musselburgh, &c. on account of the Election of a Peer, which comes on this Day at the Borough Room here, and a great Number of the Nobility are come to Town on that Account: and Yesterday an Express arrived with Proxies from London to the said Election.

Brigadier Preston, Deputy Governor of the Castle, is arrived at his Lodgings in that Fort.

Strict Search is still making to find out the Persons concerned in the late Riot; and Yesterday one John Birny, said to be a Coachman's Helper, was taken up and committed Prisoner to the Castle.

They write from Chester, that on the Friday when Watkin Williams Wynne, Esq; was chose Mayor of that City, almost 600 Gentlemen dined with him; on Saturday near 200, on Sunday above 300 Gentlemen and Ladies, and about 150 Citizens. — The Ladies attended the Mayores to Church both Parts of the Day in 32 Coaches, as the Gentlemen did the Mayor on Foot; and on Monday the Corporation, and a vast Number of Gentlemen dined with him:
All the Dinners were sumptuous, elegant and abounding, and the Wines the most delicate, and of the Growth of all Countries: On Tuesday there was a Ball at the Town-house, where the Gentlemen and Ladies again attended, and the Entertainment there was in the same grand Manner as on the Days preceding.

We hear from Germain Briggs near Lynn, that Five Men taking their Pleasure in a new Boat coming from Lynn, overfet the Boat by running her against the Bridge; Three of the Five were drowned, and the other Two were saved with a great deal of Difficulty; one of the Men that was drowned, swam in his Great Coat and Boots above 200 Yards, but the Tide was so strong that he could not reach the Shore, nor could any Boats be got to his Assistance. His Wife was an unhappy Spectator of his Misfortune, and soon after miscarried.

Saturday last William Julian, Esq; Counsellor at Law, died at his House at Market-Overton, in the tinction, came to Town from Newmarket Races.

Formality, and afterwards dined at Guildhall.

His Lordship's Barge in going to Westminster, touch'd on the Sand Bank opposite to Somerset House, and continued there for about Half an Hour, and was afterwards forced to be towed up by a Galley.

Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales were at Somerset House, in order to see the Barges on the Water, and afterwards went to Cheapside and saw the Procession by Land, and about Six o'Clock returned privately to St. James's.

On Thursday last one Mr. Michael Elms, a Victualler in Warwick street near Golden-square, being convicted before Colonel de Veil of refusing Quarters to a private Centinel of the Hon. Colonel Mordant's Company in his Majesty's Third Regiment of Foot Guards, he paid the Penalty of 5 l. to the Overseers of the Parish of St. James's, for the Use of the Poor of the said Parish, pursuant to the Act of Parliament.
